[illegible] The following is related by an [illegible] paper as [illegible] taking place at Baltimore It is so apt and to the point that we give it the benefit of a larger circulation It expresses the whole Democratic position in a few words

It is related of an old Democrat in Indiana that he was seen leaning against the wall of a building a few minutes after the adjournment of the Baltimore Convention weeping bitterly When interrogated by a kind hearted gentleman who was passing as to the cause of his trouble asking at the same time if he could aid him in any way the cort[illegible] and deeply humiliated old man replied No my good man you can't do me any good God knows I wish I was dead For forty long years I've been voting the Democratic ticket and I've made an affidavy that I'd stand by the party and here they've gone and passed orders to vote for Horris Greeley and I've got to do it or break my affidavy And that ain't all Mister I've raised nine sons and they're all livin and I've spent many and many a night reading Hendricks speeches to them children—and very lately too—to teach 'em what an everlastin' ol' nigger thief and lyin hypocrite Greeley was and now they've all gone back on me and I've got to go home to them boys and tell 'em that their ol' dad has been lyin to them all his life and that old Horris Greeley is one of the Lord's annointed And the poor deceived and almost heart broken old man bursting into tears again and trembling with emotion went his way saying only This is too much to bear, I believe it will surely break my heart

A San Rafael dispatch of the 28th announces the arrival at that place of Ad Moore, President of the North Pacific Railroad Co, and J B Southard, attorney for the same company They are en route for the interior The company have 20 men at work on the tunnel at White Hills

The Soldiers and Sailors' Convention of California indorsed Grant and Wilson, resolved to stand by the Republican party and suggested co operative organizations to render available the recent grant of lands to veterans made by Congress, and to secure further legislation on the subject

Three robbers made a bold attempt on Baldt & Colms store, at Humboldt, California, on the night of the 28th inst, but the clerk managed to evade the guns which the thieves had drawn on him, escaped and gave the alarm, causing the robbers to beat a precipitate retreat without accomplishing their object

Col John P Jackson of San Francisco, will speak through the present campaign throughout the State of California for Grant and Wilson He is one of the most eloquent and attractive orators on the coast, and prior to his removal to California stumped the State of Kentucky, where he was recognized as having no superior as a ready and eloquent speaker

Gen McClellan is stopping at the Grand Hotel in San Francisco He says he bought some shares in the Diamond at the suggestion of friends without any idea of becoming an officer of the Company and not knowing even where the mines were or whether the diamonds exhibited came from Arizona or somewhere else His visit to this coast has nothing to do with the diamond business

The Soldiers and Sailors Convention of California met in San Francisco on the 28th, about [illegible]00 being in attendance Gen O Connor, Thos H Goodwin Thomas Tillinghast Charles H Bard R M Lee E D Kerr, Maj L B Adams S L Hastings, W H Lowery C Mason Frank Levine Charles J Steere, Captain Fitzgerald and Capt M Jiminey were elected delegates to the Pittsburg Convention

The Harpending Roberts Diamond Mining Company of San Francisco have fitted out a company of twenty picked men who will start on Monday next via Los Angeles for the Arizona diamond diggings They will be under the direction of Captain Mike Grey, an old frontiersman Each man is sworn to secrecy and to do the square thing to the company No swallowing of big diamonds or similar tricks will be allowed It is believed by many that the announcement that they go via Los Angeles is merely a blind to prevent their being followed by outsiders who want to take a hand in picking up the brilliants Let them go by what route they may, however, they are certain of being followed and trailed to the placers if there are any

POLITICAL NOTES

The Chicago Evening Mail has interviewed the bankers of that city and finds them nearly all for Grant Men who represent the business interests of the country take little stock in Greeley

Frightened by the prospect that the Louisville Convention will nominate O Conor for President, the Greeley and Tammany crowd are doing their best to nominate him for Governor of New York They never thought O Conor amounted to much before

There is a piece of good news from South Carolina It is that Gov Scott shows signs of going for Greeley Over and over has Greeley pronounced Scott the greatest thief that ever held office Since Tammany has gone for Greeley, it is but natural that men like Gov Scott should also go for him

The ungainly shape which politics is now assuming is not surprising to the reflective mind Mr Greeley's nomination was impolitic, unnatural and venturesome Had the election come off when the novelty of such a thing was at its hight he might have made a good race, but after the sober, second thought, after the real means adopted to give birth to such a sensational political abortion, nothing short of personal and political dissolution could come out of it

From the Albany, N Y, Journal At a watering place, not far from this city, within the past month, a life long Democrat of the City of New York, a gentleman about sixty five years old, speaking of the candidates for President of the United States, announced that he and all his family, and his sons' families (twenty eight voters all told) had always voted the Democratic ticket, but all of them would vote for Grant; that they had known Greeley all his life, and could not go him for President

Says the St Louis Democrat The Cincinnati Enquirer affects indignation over a recent paragraph in the Democrat, which propounded this conundrum If stocks went down and gold went up on the mere rumor of a Democratic victory in North Carolina, what would be the effect on stocks and gold of the actual fact of Greeley's election? The Greeley organs may scoff and sneer at they please at such questions, but they are vital to the Presidential issue The people of this country can never be got to hate Grant sufficiently to bankrupt themselves to defeat him, or to love Greeley well enough to incur national [illegible] ruin for the sake of electing him

Railroad Talk in Idaho

Just now when the project of a ba L se and Columbia River r attracting at tention here it may res o note what is said about t er wh re a terested in the same enterprise The Idaho World has an article on the subject n the course of which t est that the L islature of that Territory shall provide f the issue of $1 000 000 n bonds to aid n building the part of he road hrough so th ern Idaho The World a s t s in that Territory is at a st n and that for want of railroad facilities its natural wealth remains almost untouched and wholly un developed It is believed by the World that Idaho could carry this debt without difficulty and that its taxable property would be immediately enhanced in value so as to yield an additional revenue much in excess of the interest on the bonds This idea presupposes the willingness of a company to take hold of the road and finish and equip it, after a certain amount of local aid was furnished The Idaho States o admits the force of the World's arguments but suggests objections It is rather afraid of the debt and does not relinquish the hope of a land grant It deems it better to try this last expedient for her before assuming such large liabilities for the sake of a railroad

For "Temporary Purposes."

Our member of Congress, Hon J H Slater, "eats crow," but he hopes to have better edibles in future campaigns. In a speech at Baker City last Saturday he frankly admitted that Greeley is "not what the future of the Democratic party demands" The orator was among those who felt constrained to accept Greeley, but it was for a temporary purpose only They hope to elect him and they believe they can use him He is regarded as a mere stepping stone to raise them to power and next time they hope to be strong enough to avoid a like humiliating necessity

It is observable that on the other hand "Honest Horace" affects to believe that he has effectually and forever regenerated the entire Democratic family and that they have to a man become converts to his political doctrines, admirers of his numberless eccentricities, and genuine lovers of the man Who is deceived here? Somebody is that is evident Mr Slater takes Greeley only for "temporary purposes" Mr Greeley boasts that he has entirely converted Slater from the errors of Democracy One is deceived or both are At the moment when Greeley is boasting that he has changed and regenerated Slater's whole political nature Slater himself is declaring that he is simply using Greeley for temporary purposes and will repudiate him as soon as his party recovers powe

Livingstone Again

The controversy over the authenticity of the Livingstone letters waxes warm Seven of the letters, addressed to Lord Stanley Earl Clarendon, Earl Granville and Dr Kirk recently printed by the New York Herald in connection with its map of the upper Nile have been pronounced genuine by all the experts in England These are the letters which Earl Granville has certified to be genuine after they had passed the severe scrutiny of subordinates in the Foreign Office who are entirely familiar with Livingstone's hand writing and all ' ' ing information concerning Africa The British Government, to guard against imposture, caused the fullest comparison to be made between these letters and other documents known to be in Livingstone's hand and the r lt was convincing as to genuineness Concerning the peculiar style of the letters, it is observed that a man who has for years been isolated from civilization and has led such a life as he has would hardly write with the same care and attention to the proprieties as though seated in his own library, with abundant leisure and with favorable surroundings influences But there promises to be a warm controversy on the subject A number of journals desirous of impeaching the credibility of the New York Herald have taken up the dispute, and we probably shall not hear the end of it for a considerable time

What the fruits of a Democratic victory in the South would be may be estimated in part by what has transpired in the past The Cincinnati Gazette recalls to mind the fact that when the Democracy carried North Carolina in 1870 they at once repealed the State Ku Klux law expelled the Republican Governor from office regardless of law, unseated two Republican Senators and put Democrats in their place, they went to work to destroy the new Constitution because of its loyalty, declared the convention bill passed without a constitutional majority and inaugurated a reign of lawlessness that finally compelled the National Government to intervene to stay the career of the murderous Ku Klux That's what a Democratic victory means

Go away from home to learn the news An Eastern 'Liberal' organ says Advices from Oregon of a recent date to the Liberal Campaign Committee are to the effect that Greeley will unquestionably receive the electoral vote of that State The railroad influence in that locality propose to remain neutral in the struggle, so far as the Presidency is concerned, and only to exert their strength in behalf of the United States Senator When the Greeleyists claim Oregon can we wonder that they claim everything and are unwilling to allow Grant a single electoral vote?

The New York World's correspondent says that Simon Cameron has contributed one million dollars to a corrup on t d of five million dollars to be raised and used in Pennsylvania We don't believe a word of it That amount of money would buy up the entire Democratic party of the State a result that is neither necessary nor desirable

Senator Wilson states positively that he never was a member of the Know Nothing party This knocks into p a dozen or two long editorials in the Oregon Hera'd hee

The Linn County Agricultural Fair will open on the 24th September and continue five days We acknowledge receipt of a complimentary ticket

We learn that a difficulty, which came near being serious, occurred in the Kiaskanine Precinct a few days ago between the Deputy Sheriff of Columbia county and the citizens The officer tried to sell a cow belonging to a Mr Bryant for road tax, but the sale was opposed by the people of the precinct and the sale didn't come off We have heard that pistols were drawn and that the officer had no alternative but to postpone the sale

In answer to a correspondence from Clatsop county published in the OREGONIAN of the 28th instant in regard to a disease which had attacked the potato crop Dr Du n in the Bulletin says ' If our Clatsop friend has given a correct description we can tell him just exactly what 'ails the potatoes ' It is the real old fashioned potato rot that struck the potatoes twenty eight years ago the sp ng in New England and destroyed more than three fourths of the crop for a number of years afterwards That's what's the matter How this disease has been introduced we are not prepared to say It may have been brought in new seed from the Eastern States but more probably by planting year after year upon the same ground We found symptoms of the same disease in our own field last year and the year before but not enough to give us any trouble We hope may not spread generally throughout the State

The Salem Flouring Mill at Hillsboro will shortly be put into successful operation The oatmeal department is now turning out a quality of meal which is pronounced by Portland merchants as far superior to any manufactured in California and equal to any in the United States It is the design of Mr Milne the proprietor in conjunction with a gentleman just from Australia to erect a large addition and enter into the rice manufactory believing that the Oregon market can be supplied with a superior article at a cheaper rate than can be imported ready for use In addition to this, arrangements have been made with Allen & Lewis, of Portland and others for the furnishing of corn from Walla Walla and other points where his grain matures so that our markets will, as soon as the machinery is put in be supplied with fresh ground corn meal and ready made hominy and instead of eating the culings from other markets Oregon can boast of a pure article which is second to none These are the class of men Oregon most desires to see—men of energy

A correspondent at Oregon City sends us the following account of a fire at that place yesterday morning "About 11 A M to-day our city had a narrow escape from the ravages of the fire fiend A large two story dwelling house, owned by Dave Thompson Esq and occupied by Mr Grepo head sawyer at the Oregon City Saw mill caught fire through a defective stove pipe which passed through the roof At one time the danger of a general conflagration was imminent, the house being situated in almost the center of the city and being rather remote from the hydrant to which the hose has to be attached The fire gained great headway and the flames were issuing through the roof some time before the boys could throw a stream Headed by their Foreman Mr Robert Burden '2's' boys threw the first stream and aided by No 1's and the Hook and Ladder Company succeeded much to their credit in confining the fire solely to the building in which it started and thus averting a threatened destruction of the main portion of the city Loss about $300 No insurance

A State Superintendent

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The State Teachers Association recommended among other things the e a State Superintendent the state of a nt s g nera p rf d l f e l en l o e t e l r a When h S l h a t s tt t t a l r l C t a S Sh l C f Institute or Normal School educational institution whatever t made h h s of the State Superintendent t to a report setting forth full and it is the management and condition of each school In the report on general education the State we should find how many district have only three months school how many have no school how many children do not attend school how many attend so irregularly as to secure little or no benefit how many are securing education in private schools how many are receiving higher education in grammar schools and colleges &c &c In a tabulated form would be found the value of all school houses school sites libraries apparatus natural history collections, &c, belonging to the schools of the State In the same way the sum raised by the district and the amount received by the State would be clearly exhibited

Once or twice a year the State Superintendent sends a set of printed questions to the County Superintendents as a standard by which to conduct the examination of teachers In addition to this the State Superintendent assisted by a Board of Education is required to grant State certificates to those teachers found qualified A great many questions of law are submitted to this officer The Superintendent of Schools in Ohio says More than twelve hundred letters of which copies are taken are annually written in the Commissioner's office most of which are in answer to legal questions arising under the school laws In most cases of dispute the opposing parties are willing to abide by the decisions rendered and thus save litigation It is the duty of the Superintendent to apportion the interest of the School Fund to the several counties He generally devotes eight or ten weeks of each year to the management of Teachers Institutes The teachers come together and the most approved methods of imparting instruction are presented The benefit arises chiefly from the thought awakened and the direction given to the private studies of the teachers Added to all this and much more he must acquaint himself with the history of education he must know its present condition in the different states of the world and the means by which all valuable results have been attained Then if he is a man of mature judgment, he will know how much of their methods we are prepared to adopt

Such knowledge will save us from many costly and mortifying mistakes

For instance Illinois in 1865 passed a law to secure uniformity of text books It met with so much opposition that it was repealed at the next session At that time the matter was fully discussed and it was pretty clearly shown that local uniformity is all that is desirable Notwithstanding this several States have adopted such a law but its success is not such as will recommend it to others In California it gives rise to never ending discussion and the State at large seems heartily sick of it Whoever grants State Certificates should know the experience of other States for the last ten years Wisconsin and Illinois placed the standard high and their State Superintendents have not degraded it

So Wisconsin with a population of more than one million had up to 1870 only eight successful applicants And Illinois with two and a half millions only twenty eight

Ohio placed the standard much lower and with a population but little greater than that of Illinois had eighty four In Minnesota up to the close of the same year none were given based on examination Upon the unsafe principle that the receivers were good fellows and all right as a matter of course quite a number were conferred as compliments

In California having a proxy in every county who conducts the examination, and sends the papers to the State Board for approval has ruined the whole system in less than three years

That this letter may be brought within reasonable limits, many other points which would show the care and study required in this important office, are omitted

But to discharge the duties mentioned requires learning and ability not possessed by every ambitious partisan Report examinations text books institutes are four words soon spoken But to gather and arrange the material for a statistical work of two or three hundred pages is not quite so easy

To prepare questions is easy enough but to prepare them so as to reach the highest standard which will enable all the schools to get teachers retiring as many as possible of the incompetent requires a little more thought

To know what geography you studied when a boy requires a little memory but to know which has the latest and best maps requires some investigation and comparison

Any one can take charge of an institute who has sufficient brass but to conduct it successfully requires brains And to know less than the pupils about the subject would not be pleasant for a teacher whether engaged by State or district Hoping that Oregon may select a man every way competent for the place I remain W L W

Tweed's Tribulations

A dispatch from New York City dated August 19th gives the following concerning the most noted representative Democrat that recent times have produced

Several friends of Tweed and other ring thieves anxious to secure Greeley's election but fearful of the injurious effect of Tweed's open adhesion to the Cincinnati ticket are endeavoring to secure his promise to take no part in the campaign and it is generally believed that they have succeeded Tweed is anxious to make a bargain that will save him from prosecution He had n overt re to Grant's friends to support Grant with g money but the c r w s l n l nd h next turned to Gr y arty Some of his friends knowing the injurious effect of his support have threatened that he will attach himself to whoever does not promise him immunity from prosecution

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 30, 1872.

CITY.

PROBABLE MURDER.—In our last issue, an account was given of the discovery of the body of an Indian below the city, under such circumstances as led to the suspicion that he had been murdered. The Coroner's Jury met yesterday morning to further examine into the case. Owing to the absence of several witnesses, the investigation was postponed until 1 o'clock. At that hour the jurors met at the office of Messrs. Ball & Durham. The examination of the witnesses was conducted by C. A. Ball, on the part of the State. Drs. Parker and Strong were sworn and testified to the number and character of the wounds inflicted on the body of the deceased. They gave it as their professional opinion that death was produced by three wounds—one on the neck, and one on the right and left side—either one of which was sufficient to cause death sooner or later. From the nature of the wounds, the stabs could not have been self inflicted, but were undoubtedly given by other parties. The stabs given on each side of the body appeared to have been made by two different kinds of knives—one a broad and the other a thin blade. The thrusts both ranged upward, and apparently given at the same instant by two persons standing on each side. Several other witnesses were examined, from whom the following facts were elicited: The name of the murdered Indian was Joseph Bove. He was a half-breed—his mother being a Kanaka and his father an Italian, both of whom now reside on Puget Sound. Bove had lived about the city for the last year or more. He did a variety of things—sawing wood, doing "chores" and peddling apples. Last Friday he was seen by several of the witnesses below the city. One witness saw him that day bring two boxes of apples to the city and sell the same. Friday evening he was seen in the company of two other Indians, named Jim and Narciss. About 8 o'clock that night Bove was observed to be under the influence of liquor, but at the time was alone. Nothing more was seen of him until the body was discovered floating in the river. It was brought to land by two men named Döscher and Simpson and identified at once. Since Friday evening the Indian, Narciss, has been missing, but Jim is still below the city. One of the witnesses testified that an old Indian woman, who lives in the locality, said that she visited Narciss' hut on Saturday morning, and saw concealed under a piece of old matting on the ground a large bowie-knife covered with blood. The Coroner and District Attorney, deeming the case of sufficient importance to warrant a more minute and searching examination, discharged the jury until this morning at 10 o'clock. In the meantime several more persons were summoned as witnesses, to be present this morning, and the police were instructed to arrest Indian Jim and Narciss, if the latter could be found, and bring them up.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.—On the 15th of August Chief of Police Lappeus received a dispatch from Chief Crowley of San Francisco, making inquiries as to the whereabouts of a certain man named McKenna. The dispatch stated that McKenna had some time before—on the 27th of July—left San Francisco, and forfeited his bonds. He took the John L. Stephens for Portland, and it was supposed that he was still in this city at the time the telegram was sent. From all that can be learned of the case it appears some months ago McKenna and a man named Brannan, were both indicted on a charge of having set fire to a house on California street. Both were under bonds for their appearance, when McKenna took advantage of his liberty, and decamped. When the dispatch was received Lappeus detailed Captain Brannan to work up the case. The passenger lists of the steamers were closely examined, but no name could be found. The first dispatch of inquiry incidentally mentioned that McKenna was a house raiser and mover. With this slight clue Brannan commenced quietly to trace out the matter. By careful and cautious inquiries he soon ascertained from parties that McKenna and wife came up in the steerage, and that both were now in the city. McKenna was soon after pointed out, and his form and features closely scrutinized. Having become certain that all was right, Lappeus telegraphed down "their man was here." The same day another dispatch was received from Crawley, informing Lappeus that officer McCormick would be dispatched forthwith to bring McKenna back. McCormick arrived on the Oriflamme yesterday morning. He was instructed by Lappeus to take the morning train, [illegible] quietly to Salem and procure the necessary [illegible]. Meantime Brannan went to where [illegible] was living and arrested him. After [illegible] into custody, he confessed that he was McKenna, and was under bonds on a charge of arson. Yesterday afternoon McCormick returned from Salem with a requisition from the [illegible]. He will depart with his prisoner on the Oriflamme.

DANGEROUS PLACE.—Immediately in front of the Oro Fino Saloon is a depression in the asphaltum pavement, just about large enough to admit a person's foot. Those who pass there, especially after dark, rarely miss stumbling in this hole. Several ladies who have passed there have narrowly escaped a severe fall in consequence of this break in the pavement. Attention has been called several times to the spot, but as yet has been unattended by the desired result. A few minutes work and a very trifling expenditure of money would be far better than a suit for a broken leg against the city. We invite the special attention of both the Street Commissioner and Chief of Police to this matter, and hope it will meet with prompt action on their part.

TO STAND.—It appears after all, from the action of the Council, that the old fir tree on Fourth street in front of the Skating Rink, will probably remain unmolested. A petition was sent into the Council at its last meeting, asking that the tree should be allowed to stand, and that the street be planked all around the base. The matter was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property. This committee will doubtless concur in the wishes of those who signed the petition, unless its removal becomes an urgent necessity. Let the brave old tree stand, "which has ruled in the land so long," is the sentiment of this public. It has stood sentinel over our growing city so long, that to disturb and destroy it seems almost [illegible].

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The East Portland School, District No. 21, will commence the Fall term, the first Monday in September, 1872. The Directors have made a very good improvement to the school buildings by having a recitation room built on, [illegible] have secured the services of W. W. Freeman, as principal and teacher, and Mrs. Charlton, as teacher of the primary department. Mr. Freeman is recently from the East. We learn that he is a graduate of Dartmouth College, and a successful and experienced teacher. Mrs. Charlton conducted the primary department during the last Spring term, and gave general satisfaction. Under the circumstances we may expect that a first class school will be maintained. So says the Era.

READY TO COME.—We were shown a letter yesterday addressed to a gentleman in this city from Danville, Illinois, under date of August 13th. The writer states that fifteen young men, representing a number of the various avocations, who are desirous of coming to this State and only await favorable assurances as to wages, prospects of employment, etc. The writer intimates that the number spoken of are not afraid to labor at anything which is honorable and remunerative. Young men of energy, enterprise and capability would, perhaps, succeed in business here as well as in any other comparatively new settled section of the Union. Oregon opens her maternal arms and welcomes all.

"THE HEALTH-LIFT."—At the Central Drug Store, corner of Main and First streets, may be seen an apparatus designed for daily use in what is known as the Health Lift Exercise. Dr. Winship, it will be recollected, succeeded after two years' exercise, in lifting with a similar apparatus a weight of twenty-seven hundred and fifty [illegible]. It is simply a table upon which the person may stand between two vertical iron rods, at [illegible] is a cross-bar below the table; from which [illegible] is suspended any number of fifty pounds that may be required. The lifter stands, and while lifting brings into vigorous exercise more than [illegible] hundred muscles of the human frame.

[illegible] ARREST.—Capt. Reuben Patterson, Master of the bark Edward James, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by U. S. District Attorney Gibbs, charging him with a violation of the United States laws. The warrant avers substantially that Capt. Patterson brought from Hongkong on the Edward James 30 more Chinese passengers than the measurement of his vessel would admit, allowing 14 cubic feet to every passenger. A partial examination of the case was made yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Wilcox. A further investigation of the charge will be heard before the Commissioner to-day at one o'clock P. M.

NEW CHURCH BUILDING.—From the Era, we learn that a meeting of the friends of the Baptist cause was held in this city during the past week, and steps taken looking to the organization of those of that denomination. Among other things a lot was purchased and negotiations opened for the purpose of securing building material suitable for the erection of a church. The edifice, we are informed, will be, when completed, the finest building of the kind in the city. Work on the foundation for the church will be commenced immediately, and it is thought everything will be completed by the last of October.

LET ALL ATTEND.—Mrs. A. J. Duniway is announced to speak on the political issues of the day at the Court House this evening. Let there be a grand rally to-night. The public without regard to age, sex, condition or political complexion are cordially invited to be present. Music has been provided expressly for the occasion. The interests of the hour and the acknowledged abilities of the speaker will be a sufficient inducement to crowd the court room to repletion.

A FALSE ACCOUNT.—A correspondent informs us that the published account of the festival at Lee's Chapel on Wednesday evening in the East Portland Era is utterly untrue. The door keeper on the occasion says that no person left the house while the "Grant Campaign Song," as the Era has it, was being sung, the only two Greeley men present having left before, but with perfect decorum, and further that Greeley's name was not mentioned during the evening.

SERIOUS INJURY.—The young man whose foot was nearly cut off a few days ago at Cementville is reported to be in a critical condition. A portion of the foot was amputated shortly after the accident. Subsequently the limb was again amputated, and at last accounts gangrene was seriously threatened, which will probably necessitate re-amputation. The prospects of recovery are not very flattering at present.

JUDGE FIELD COMING.—Judge Matthew P. Deady received a dispatch last evening from Judge Stephen J. Field, of the United States Supreme Bench, which stated that he would leave San Francisco for this place on the steamer sailing to-morrow morning. We publish this for the accommodation of attorneys who may have business to transact in the United States Circuit Court.

CITY CHARTER.—A revised copy of the charter of the city of Portland, street and Fire Department laws, ordinances, regulations, etc., published by order of the Common Council, has been laid on our table. It is a neatly bound volume of 367 pages, and presents a handsome typographical appearance. The work was executed by A. G. Walling, book and job printer.

UNDER ARREST.—A Russian named Terrueta Savaloff was brought down on the Geo. S. Wright from Sitka, in custody of two soldiers. He is charged with having introduced liquor in an Indian country. Immediately on his arrival, Savaloff was taken charge of by U. S. Marshal Young. He is now in jail to await the action of the grand jury.

BACKED OFF.—A valuable team belonging to Mr. Parker, of Astoria, backed off the wharf at that place on Tuesday evening, where the water was about twelve feet deep. Before the team could be extricated from the harness and wagon, one of the horses was drowned. The other horse together with the harness and wagon were fished out.

NEW GOODS.—Per steamer Oriflamme Messrs. Fishel & Roberts received a fine assortment of cloths, vestings and other goods, selected by Mr. Fishel, at San Francisco, who is looking after everything new in their line. As this is just the time to order a fall suit it would be policy to examine this new stock.

BOUND OVER.—The Russian, Savaloff, who is charged with having introduced liquor in an Indian country, was examined yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Wilcox on the charge. He was held to answer and being unable to procure the required bonds was remanded to jail.

NEW MUSIC.—Mr. George L. De Prans has laid on our table two new and splendid pieces of music, entitled: "Open the Door," by Stephen Massett (Jeems Pipes of Pipesville); and the "Bells that Rang Nellie a Bride," words and music by Fred Lyster. Both are capital compositions.

RETURNED.—A party of nimrods returned yesterday from the Cascade mountains, after an absence of fourteen days which they spent pleasantly in that region. The result was a good haul of trout and some of the feathered tribe, besides an improvement in their physical condition.

PROPELLER BROKE.—As the tug Merrimac was on her way to Astoria on Wednesday she ran on a rock and broke her propeller. Thursday morning she was beached at Astoria and the necessary repairs are being made. One of the wings of the propeller was found to be broken.

REPAIRED.—The railroad track on the west side which sustained some damage from the fire of Wednesday afternoon, has been repaired and trains are again running regularly. About six hundred ties were destroyed, but the rails were damaged only to a slight extent.

REPORTED DEAD.—A report reached the city last evening that Isaac B. Smith, whose leg was seriously crushed and subsequently amputated, at Monticello, about a week since, died yesterday from the effects of the injuries received.

ARRIVED.—The steamer Geo. S. Wright arrived at this port from Sitka yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. She brought a few passengers and a light cargo. Good weather and a pleasant time was experienced throughout the passage.

GOOD TIME.—The little sloop of Captain Burke made good time on her return trip to this city. The Annie Devlin sailed from Astoria Monday afternoon and arrived here Wednesday afternoon—sailing all the way up.

TIME EXTENDED.—Judge Deady has extended the time for filing a motion for a new trial, and affidavits in support thereof, in the case of Frank Tompkins et al., to Saturday, September 21st.

ON TRIAL.—The case of John Boyle, implicated in the Yaquina Bay difficulty, was on trial yesterday in the U. S. District Court.

The seven conference collections taken during the year by the Taylor street church foot up over $900. So we are informed by one of the official brethren.

The many pupils of the musical department of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will sincerely regret the accident which temporarily disabled the right hand of their faithful and beloved teacher, Mrs. P. P. Church, causing her to resign for the present her position.

The monthly concert of the Taylor street M. E. Sunday School will be held in the lecture room of the church on next Sunday at 2 P. M. The exercises will consist of recitations and readings from "Our Scrap Books," interspersed with solos, quartettes, duets and an infant class chorus.

The Sabbath School at Ames' Chapel will give a sacred concert on Sabbath morning next at 11 o'clock. An excellent programme of exercises has been prepared, and all are cordially invited to attend. Among other speakers Mr. H. H. Northrup of this city will deliver an address on the occasion.

Superintendent Caples, in view of his probable absence from the city during the rest of the year, sent in his resignation to the teachers' meeting on Tuesday evening, and the resignation was not accepted, but Mr. Caples will be urged to hold the position until the close of the year. During his absence Mr. J. M. Sparrow, who has been elected Assistant Superintendent, will act as Superintendent.

PERSONAL.

Col. Hooker, Superintendent of the Oregon and California Stage Line is now in the city.

W. Currier and daughter, of this city, arrived at San Francisco last evening overland from the East.

W. S. Caldwell, the City Auditor and Clerk, who has been absent from his post for the last month on a tour to Sitka, returned to the city yesterday morning on the steamer Geo. S. Wright.

We were favored last evening with a call from Fred. D. Hard, who arrived in the city on Wednesday overland from the East. Mr. Hard has been connected for over a year with the Postal Department at Washington, in various capacities. Recently he was detailed to proceed to Washington Territory and look after postal affairs in that section. He will assist Special Agent Underwood by taking charge of that District, and thus relieve him of a portion of the arduous duties and labors of looking after, and regulating mail matters.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICE.

NORWEGIAN SERVICE.—There will be religious services in the Norwegian language, by request of the officers and crews of the two Norwegian vessels now in port, at the Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Church in East Portland, next Sunday at 10:30 o'clock A. M. Sabbath School in English at 2 o'clock. Religious services in English at 3 o'clock as usual.

Rev. J. F. Anderson, pastor of the First A. M. E. Zion Church, returned from a visit to Victoria and Sound ports. He will lecture at this church on Sabbath evening at 8 o'clock. Subject: "Genuineness and Authenticity of the Scriptures." All are cordially invited to attend.

AMUSEMENTS.

Oro Fino Theater will be opened this evening for two nights only. A first-class bill is offered the public. Charles Vivian will appear in a number of his great, attractive specialties, M'lle Gaugain in some of her celebrated dances, Ed. Montague in his splendid acrobatic feats, and M'lle Gerretta in her wonderful aerial, suspension acts. The entertainment gives promise of a rich and varied treat to the public.

CANNOT BE EXCELLED.—There has been a decided change in personnel of the photographic establishment of Joseph Buchtel, by the presence of Mr. E. H. Stolte as a partner with Mr. Buchtel. Mr. Carl Bosco, the famous artist, continues to transfer physiognomies to plate in a manner that meets with general approval. Messrs. Buchtel & Stolte have on exhibition daily at the entrance to the Gallery, Corbett's Building, First street, between Washington and Alder, the finest display of work in their particular line ever produced in this State, and in the East it would be difficult to find anything to excel it. The firm and those connected with it need no words of praise. The work they produce is the best endorsement any gallery could have.

Want of Vitality.
It is a [illegible] the system open to the attacks [illegible] Night and day we are [illegible] by deleterious [illegible] No atmosphere is entirely pure, no water is utterly free from [illegible] What defense has the weak [illegible] against any of the morbid influences which produce epidemic and other diseases? None whatever. There is no safety save in artificial reinforcement. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have [illegible] effect. If the nervous forces of the body have been recklessly expended in exhausting physical or mental labor, or dissipated in the [illegible] of a "fast" life, the powerful vegetable tonic and [illegible] will restore them. If the defective vitality is a constitutional evil, it can be remedied to a great extent by this wonderful invigorant. At a season of the year when the air is more or less impregnated with the seeds of periodic fevers, it is especially desirable that the digestion should be perfect, the habit of body regular, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves firm. These conditions are the best protection against all disorders, and they are conditions to which the Bitters are better adapted than any other medicinal agent to promote at [illegible]. See to it, however, that no imitation or counterfeit is substituted for the genuine article, and let all who value health and have an antipathy to poison beware of the [illegible] all bitters made from condemned drugs and villainous [illegible] alcohol, which have sprung up like unwholesome fungi all over the country.

History Repeated.

HOW GEORGE WASHINGTON WAS ASSAILED BY HIS ENEMIES—PERSONAL ABUSE, MALIGNANT MISREPRESENTATION, DESERTION BY FRIENDS—WHAT CAME OF IT.

In a recent speech at St. Louis, Hon John B. Henderson illustrated the character of the malignant partisan assaults now being made on General Grant, by the following apt and striking reference to the coarse and malignant way in which General George Washington was assailed during his administration:

To-day I picked up a work in my library called the "Life of Washington, by Mr. Irving." I wish to read to you what Judge Marshall said in his "Life of Washington," vol. 5, page 241. It was at a period of time when General Washington was being assailed all over the country. It was in 1795, when the newspapers all over the country had to a certain extent taken away the fair fame of General Washington, and had discarded his glorious services in the war of the Revolution. These men, for the purpose of simply tearing down his administration, putting somebody else in power, and bringing hordes of their friends forward to fill the offices of those they wanted to turn out, almost obscured the fair fame of Washington. Mr. Sumner says, in a letter which he has just published, written to our colored friends the other day, that General Grant deserves impeachment as much as a hundred Johnsons. Well, I don't believe that Andrew Johnson deserved it, but I believe that Mr. Sumner did, [great applause and laughter] and although I voted against the impeachment of Andrew Johnson, I would to-day ten thousand times rather vote, from all that I know of the two men, for impeaching Johnson; I would vote ten thousand times to convict Andrew Johnson, where I would vote once to impeach General Grant. [Great applause.]

What has he done? Let me read to you what they said about George Washington. Was he the pure man as he is now enshrined in your memories? Have you aught to say against that blessed man? Is he not immortal? If there was a mortal upon the face of the earth that we believe long since has entered the kingdom of heaven, and a pure, upright and virtuous man; if there is one whose memory is sweet, not only among Americans, but the world at large, it is George Washington. [Applause.] But, sir, let us see how he was used. I read from "Irving's Life of Washington": "The ratification of the treaty had opened the vials of party wrath against him." Now what does Judge Marshall say? "His morality and public character," we are told, "were attacked with equal violence, and it was avowed that he was totally destitute of merit, either as a soldier or a statesman." Do you see any likeness in that? [Great applause.] "He was charged with having violated the Constitution in negotiating a treaty without the advice of the Senate, and that he had embraced within the treaty subjects belonging exclusively to the Legislature, for which an impeachment was publicly suggested." Impeaching George Washington? Yes, they proposed it. Henry Clay and John C. Calhoun suggested the impeachment of Andrew Jackson. It is not uncommon. Scarcely does a man go through the trials of the Presidency without somebody suggesting his impeachment. "Be thou pure as snow and chaste as ice, thou shalt not escape calumny." [Great applause.]

Judge Marshall, continuing, says: "Nay, more; it was asserted that he had drawn from the treasury, for his private use, more than the salary annexed to his office." I saw it stated, the other day, that there was a large balance against General Grant. Some scoundrel had been reading General Washington. [Great laughter and applause.] Gentlemen, are you aware that at that time public men left the Cabinet of George Washington? John Randolph left it. He was his Secretary of State. He surrendered his place and left it in disgust, because a dispatch of the French Minister had been seized while passing across the ocean, and had been returned by the English Foreign Office back to this country. Jefferson was an enemy of George Washington, also—a bitter and malignant enemy; and when he was a second time President he wrote to Monroe, who was then our Minister to Paris, stating that the people, strange to say, had gone for Washington, against all the light of reason [great applause and laughter]; and after his re-election, when that vituperation came upon him thick and fast, through the public press and public men, disgusting the public ear with their calumnies against the purity of the purest man that ever lived, Jefferson wrote to him, begging him to understand that he was not engaged in this work of detraction. George Washington addressed him a letter in reply. I will not read it all to you, but I will read a part of it:

"To this I may add, and very truly, that, until the last year or two, I had no conception that parties would, or ever could, go to the length I have been witness to; nor did I believe until lately that it was within the bounds of probability, hardly within those of possibility, that while I was using my utmost exertions to establish a national character of our own—independent, as far as our obligations and justice would permit, of every nation of the earth—and wished, by steering a steady course, to preserve this country from the horrors of a desolating war, I should be accused of being the enemy of one nation and subject to the influence of another; and to prove it, that every act of my Administration would be tortured, and the grossest and most insidious misrepresentations of them be made, by giving one side only of the subject, and that, too, in such exaggerated and indecent terms as could scarcely be applied to a Nero, a notorious defaulter, or even a common pickpocket." Do you see any similarity? [Great applause and laughter.]

Gentlemen, it was whilst this slander and wrong was heaped upon the head of this man that the people of that good old State—Maryland—could not stand it any longer. Remembering the inspiration of the American Revolution, remembering the glorious deeds of that good man—the Legislature assembled, and they said to him by the passage of a resolution:

"Observing with deep concern a series of efforts, by indirect insinuation or open invective, to detach from the first magistrate of the Union the well-earned confidence of his fellow-citizens, they think it their duty to declare, and they do hereby declare, their unabated reliance on the integrity, judgment and patriotism of the President of the United States."

Washington, in reply to that, says: "At any time the expression of the sentiment would have been considered as highly honorable and flattering. At the present, when the voice of malignancy is so high-toned, and no attempts are left unessayed to destroy all confidence in the constituted authorities of the country, it is peculiarly grateful to my sensibility."

Gentlemen, you might take the history of General Jackson, and it is the same thing. The second term of General Jackson, when Watson Webb, of the Enquirer, went off, and many newspapers followed the lead of this great metropolitan journal, it was universally supposed that it was utterly impossible for Jackson to be re-elected; but when the day of election came he got nearly all of the electoral votes, and Mr. Clay, his competitor, who had denounced him as an organizer of centralization—overthrowing the liberties of the people—was scarcely known in the fight. And Mr. Worth, who carried the little State of Vermont simply as an independent candidate, had the consolation, after the election was over, of throwing himself back and saying that the American people were such fools that they would do anything whatever, and would elect a military dictator. [Laughter and applause.]

A Western paper tells the following anecdote of a college student: H——, a member of one of the classes, was distinguished not less for dry wit and sly waggery than for his address in evading the writing of themes, and in palming off the brain-coined currency of others as his legitimate "tender." One Monday morning he read a theme of unusual merit; but Professor A—— "smelled a rat," and as H—— finished and sat down in the pride of conscious innocence, asked: "Is that original, H——?" "Yes, sir." "Are you sure of it?" inquired the Professor, doubtingly. "Why, yes, sir," replied H——, with the imperturbable gravity and that pasteboard countenance he always wore, "it had original over it in the paper I took it from."

Money is [illegible] to get, and considerable complaint is made on account of the difficulty of obtaining ready cash for current business. During the last few weeks vast sums of money have been sent into the interior to buy Wheat. [illegible] of Wheat are [illegible] generally [illegible] The [illegible] is that the money is [illegible], Wheat [illegible], interior merchants have [illegible] cash trade, and the general effect is felt in the want of activity in business here. But it is thought that active movement will soon begin. When the grain crop begins to come forward in volume, the whole machinery of business will move with it.

The general merchandise market presents no new features other than a movement of goods or imports. Trade is slack. Demand for goods for the fall trade has hardly commenced. It is generally thought that trade will be slow in opening this year. The tardiness of farmers in getting their grain in market has a depressing effect on general business.

Simultaneously with the bountiful grain and root crops of 1872 all over the country, the crop of precious metals of the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific slope is rapidly increased, and will foot up a larger amount this year than ever before. The treasure shipments eastward by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express, from California, Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, Washington, Montana, Utah, Arizona, Colorado, and Victoria, British Columbia, for the half year ending June 30, 1872, were Silver, $15,860,923; gold, $16,158,521; total, $32,019,444. Since the accounts of the first half of the year were closed, nearly all the mines have increased their production, and a San Francisco paper thinks the total of gold and silver for the year will reach $80,000,000 to $82,000,000, and that the production of 1873 will amount to $100,000,000. The annual average for the last ten or twelve years has been, we believe, about $65,000,000. The increase of this year is as marked as it is surprising, and affords a new and remarkable proof of the wonderful prosperity of all parts of this great country.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED AT THE NATIONAL CONVENTION, HELD IN PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily pursued a policy toward the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion; the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency it has provided for the National credit, and sustained it for the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reduction of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be so adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption of specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of ——, State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said land of the Company, in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. "Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall have a right to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land be not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years-standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fœtid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
